

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN CHURCH MINISTRIES

The Associate of Arts degree in Church Ministries is designed for students desiring a background in local church ministry. This program provides the education requirements for the licensed minister credential with the General Council of the Assemblies of God. Credit from the Associate of Arts degree may be applied toward a Bachelor of Arts degree for students who desire to continue their education. Students will gain valuable ministry experience through involvement in the student ministries program, chapel, services, and other ministry opportunities available throughout the year.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Associate of Arts degree in Church Ministries, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an understanding of the major biblical and theological truths of God's Word.
- Demonstrate an understanding and practical ability in key ministry activities within the church.
- Utilize sound interpretive skills to study the Bible and discover universal theological principles and how they apply to a person's life today.

See the current Academic Catalog for specific degree requirements and course descriptions.